

Anupama Ramachandran
Associate Creative Director
Sony LIV

Anupama Ramachandran is a Group Head for content development and commissioning for the digital vertical of Sony Pictures Networks India- SonyLIV.

With a career spanning 16 years, Anupama has varied experience in the visual medium as a news reporter, anchor, creative director, executive producer and writer of both fiction and non-fiction content. She has worked on films, documentaries, television shows and most recently on series for the digital medium.

Anupama has a Diploma in Broadcast Journalism from the Asian College of Journalism and a Bachelors degree in English Literature from St. Stephens College, New Delhi. She's an avid reader and consumer of global cinema, art and literature. Anupama also believes in supporting small businesses with a special focus on women's emancipation.